It is night in Springfield. No bowling balls thunder down the lanes at Barney's Bowlarama. Nothing stirs on the city streets but the trucks carrying nuclear waste from the power plant. Everyone is fast asleep... except: Bart Simpson!

*With only the light of one small candle, Bart huddles in his treehouse, devouring the all-action adventures his favorite comic book *Mighty-Hero, Radioactive Man!

Only... what has become of him? There's one page to go and the plutonium powerhouse has disappeared without a trace! He must be in trouble, but who will save him?

"You will!" announces someone...

*Bart leaps up from his comic. The "someone" is none other than *Fallout Boy, Radioactive Man's sidekick!

Without wasting a moment, the masked teen explains Radioactive Man's grim fate. Led by the mysterious "Brain-O The Magnificent," a group has imprisoned Radioactive Man in the dreaded Limbo Zone, the inter-dimensional nether-region that revolves around a black hole from which no one has ever returned alive!

To make matters worse, Brain-O's kidnapping companions—Swamp Hag, Dr. Crab, and Lava Man—have each stolen one of Radioactive Man's Mighty-Powers, rendering any chance of his escape impossible.

Is it the end of Radioactive Man? Will the world ever be safe again? All is lost unless...

Say no more! This looks like a job for... BARTMAN!

BARTMAN TO THE RESCUE!

With Radioactive Man trapped in the Limbo Zone, Bartman's only chance is to go through each chapter of the comic and defeat the Mighty-Villains Swamp Hag, Dr. Crab, and Lava Man. However, to reach them demands Bartman first find the Bartman Mighty-Hero warp emblems.

NOTE: Once you find the Bartman Mighty-Hero emblem, to reach the next level, touch it.

These will warp him to the next level of his quest and bring him face to face with each of the criminals!

BARTMAN MIGHTY-HERO

The way of a Mighty-Hero is fraught with danger! Every hit costs energy. Cruel cronies, oozing gook, super-sized crabs, and more threaten to end a life at any instant, but without you, Radioactive Man is history! Go to it, Bartman!

When you see the chapter titles, to begin, press the A, B, or START BUTTONS.

CHAPTER ONE SWAMP HAG'S JUNKYARD OF DOOM!

LEVEL 1: THE JUNKYARD

The Junkyard is full of pick-ups... and you'll need 'em! The air is thick with Big Bite Bugs. Humongous stacks of tires block your path. The giant cranes try to snap you in two, and the sunken trash compactors pack a wallop. They can easily crush Bartman.

LEVEL 2: THE SUBTERRANEAN PIPE

Stretching ever further underground from the Junkyard is the Subterranean Super Tube. The only way down is to hitch a ride on top of the welding droids! Swamp Hag's henchmen guard every corner. Toxic drips drop from the ceiling pipes! But, you're no average Mighty-Hero; you're Bartman!

LEVEL 3: THE SWAMP

MATT GROENING

Automatically armed with the power of flight, Bartman can zoom through this prehistoric bog at top speed. But, watch out for the Swamp Bats! They drop floating mini-mines that explode on contact, while Fire Firing Fire-Flies roast you with their flaming darts.

LEVEL 4: SWAMP HAG'S HIDEAWAY

From high in the trees, the Swamp Hag will bombard the Bartman with lethal balls of swamp fungi! Use your Cold Breaths to freeze the balls into a staircase of platforms. Once high enough, take on the Swamp Hag herself!

CHAPTER TWO THE WATER-LOGGED LAIR OF DR. CRAB

LEVEL 1: THE SEA BED

One place guaranteed to give Bartman no rest is the sea bed! Octopi lurk in the deep volcanic fissures, only spreading their tentacles when unsuspecting Mighty-Heroes swim past. Dr. Crab's flotilla of mini-sub's fire salvos of torpedoes. Massive vents on the forty story walls of Dr. Crab's lair release riptide-like currents!

NOTE: To reap the sunken pick-up treasures of the deep, find the hole in the wall, move toward it, and you'll enter the secret room.

ART GARDNER

LEVEL 2: THE CRAB WALK

Deep, deep beneath the sea, lies the corridor that leads to the Doc's command center. Getting through it demands avoiding the Mighty-Hero eating crabs, fleets of jelly fish, stinging stingrays, and many others!

LEVEL 3: THE INNER WALL

Inside the walls of the lair, the only light is a search beam looking for overly adventurous Mighty-Heroes. Don't get caught in the center cross hair. However, move fast and you can use the light to check out a clear route to the Bartman emblem and plenty of pick-ups.

LEVEL 4: MORE CRAB WALK

Continue the trek through this aquatic jungle — this time battling squid missiles and more!

WAT GREENING

Nintendo ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM

LEVEL 5: THE BOILER ROOM

Escaping this mechanical maze requires navigating miniature platforms, monster-sized waterfalls, and one really mean creature. The towers of conveyor belts will help get you around, but while enjoying the ride, watch out for the ON/OFF platforms that control the steam vents.

LEVEL 6: DR. CRAB'S LAIR

Inside the lair, Bartman must rely on his incredible strength to defeat Dr. Crab. Hit him right on his head and keep at him no matter where he goes! But, keep a Mighty eye out for the villain's evil assistant. He may be small but his bite is lethal.

CHAPTER THREE 20,000 MILES UNDER THE EARTH!

LEVEL 1: THE SUNKEN VOLCANO

Inside the volcano are huge caverns and lava rivers. But, our Mighty-Hero need not be alarmed... as long as he avoids the green dragons, lava squid, and red hot roof walkers. Find your way out via the bottomless fissures, bust-up bridges, and perilous platforms!

LEVEL 2: THE UNDERGROUND CITY

The Underground City is a giant labyrinth in which the buildings are made out of massive stalactites and stalagmites. Get around by jumping and walking, and by using the secret passageways that link the doorways. Lava Man's gargoyles and pterodactyls will try to end your adventure at every step.

NOTE: To enter a doorway, move in front of it and press the UP CONTROL PAD ARROW.

WARNING: Jumping between buildings can be hazardous to your Mighty-Hero Health!

LEVEL 3: LAVA MAN'S LAVA PIT

Lava Man is taking a bath in his lava pit. Cool him down by using your Cold Breaths to freeze the water dropping from the ceiling into icicles. Every icicle that hits reduces his temperature.

CHAPTER FOUR BRAIN-O THE MAGNIFICENT!

With the last of the cronies defeated and Radioactive Man restored to his former greatness, it's time for you team up to take down the mastermind behind the whole plot... Brain-O The Magnificent. Encased inside a reinforced glass dome, atop a canon firing battle tank, Brain-O appears invincible. But, if the Mighty-Heroes work together, blasting the cranium on every side will end the evilness.

THE LIMBO ZONE

To enter the mysterious Limbo Zone, you must find the Limbo Zone Warp icon — hidden once in each level. Once in, you must survive until time runs out. Move quickly — if you stay in one spot for too long you'll be shaken off quickly. The Limbo Zone is filled with extra lives and other power-ups, collect as many as you can before the clock stops ticking. If you don't remain in the Limbo Zone in the time given, you will be sent back to the level you entered from, however, if you successfully stay in the Zone you'll automatically warp to the next level.

LIMBO ZONE

NOTE: Everytime you jump on a planet, it changes direction.

CONTINUES

Even Mighty-Heroes need help! Lose all your lives and you will get 2 continues. When you see the continue screen, use the LEFT and RIGHT CONTROL PAD ARROWS to select "YES" to continue or "NO" to end the game. To confirm your selection, press the A, B, or START BUTTONS.
